FROM THE PASTOR'S OFFICE

Dear Friends,

The first statement of the Apostles' Creed, "I believe in God the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and Earth," is the foundation of Catholic faith. It highlights God's existence and His role as the creator, shaping how we understand our relationship with Him and the world.

The phrase "I believe in God" shows that faith begins with recognizing God's presence. This belief is central to the Creed and influences moral teachings, community practices, and personal spirituality, encouraging Catholics to live with awareness of God's authority.

The Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed further affirms, "We believe in one God," reflecting the roots of monotheism in the Old Testament. God reveals Himself as the only deity, calling His people to love Him fully, a message meant for everyone.

Jesus emphasizes the importance of loving God completely and identifies Himself as "Lord," deepening our understanding of God's nature. This does not conflict with the belief in one God; rather, it enriches it. Catholic faith teaches that the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are three distinct persons in one divine essence.

This belief captures the complexity of God while affirming His unity. The Creed describes God as "eternal, infinite, unchangeable, incomprehensible, almighty, and ineffable," expressing a God who is beyond our understanding yet deeply involved in our lives.

In summary, the belief in one God is central to Catholic faith. It provides a framework for understanding our relationship with the divine, asserting that there is one eternal God in three persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. This belief guides Catholics in their worship, ethics, and community life, encouraging them to reflect God's love and truth in the world.

In Christ,

Father Abelardo

Pastor

DE LA OFICINA DEL PÁRROCO

Queridos Amigos,

La primera afirmación del Credo de los Apóstoles, "Creo en Dios, Padre Todopoderoso, Creador del cielo y de la tierra," es la base de la fe católica. Destaca la existencia de Dios y su papel como creador, moldeando nuestra comprensión de la relación entre Él y el mundo.

La frase "Creo en Dios" muestra que la fe comienza con el reconocimiento de la presencia de Dios. Esta creencia es central en el Credo y influye en las enseñanzas morales, las prácticas comunitarias y la espiritualidad personal, alentando a los católicos a vivir con la conciencia de la autoridad de Dios.

El Credo Niceno-Constantinopolitano reafirma: "Creemos en un solo Dios," lo que refleja las raíces del monoteísmo en el Antiguo Testamento. Dios se revela como la única deidad, llamando a su pueblo a amarlo plenamente, un mensaje dirigido a todos.

Jesús enfatiza la importancia de amar a Dios completamente y se identifica como "Señor," profundizando nuestra comprensión de la naturaleza de Dios. Esto no entra en conflicto con la creencia en un solo Dios; en cambio, la enriquece. La fe católica enseña que el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo son tres personas distintas en una sola esencia divina.

Esta creencia capta la complejidad de Dios al mismo tiempo que afirma su unidad. El Credo describe a Dios como "eterno, infinito, inmutable, incomprendible, todopoderoso e inefable," expresando a un Dios que está más allá de nuestra comprensión pero que está profundamente involucrado en nuestras vidas.

En resumen, la creencia en un solo Dios es central en la fe católica. Proporciona un marco para entender nuestra relación con lo divino, afirmando que hay un solo Dios eterno en tres personas: Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. Esta creencia guía a los católicos en su adoración, ética y vida comunitaria, alentándolos a reflejar el amor y la verdad de Dios en el mundo.

En Cristo,

Padre Abelardo
Párroco

YOUTH CORNER

The youth group recently prepared essential necessity bags utilizing the donations collected during their toiletry drive a few weeks ago. This initiative proved to be a valuable learning experience for all involved, as each bag assembled prompted reflections on the profound impact it would have on those in need. To further enhance these bags, we included handwritten notes of encouragement, reminding recipients not to give up and that there is always someone who loves them—Jesus Christ. Our youth firmly believes that the world could benefit from an increase in kindness, a sentiment we endeavored to convey through this endeavor.
