Reanudando nuestros proyectos de renovación de iglesias

La semana pasada, mientras continuamos con las renovaciones de la iglesia, se agregaron dos altares adicionales: un altar mariano a la izquierda del altar mayor y uno dedicado a José a su derecha. Ambos altares laterales están elaborados con la misma empresa de mármol que realizó el altar mayor, en el centro del santuario. ¡Tiempos emocionantes para nuestra iglesia!

FROM THE PASTOR'S OFFICE

Dear Friends,

As January comes to an end, we're getting ready for the start of Lent on February 14. This time of reflecting, praying, and getting prepared is a chance for us to grow closer to God.

Winter is here, and the snow might make us feel a bit lazy. But instead of just resting physically, let's also take a break to rest spiritually. Rather than hibernating spiritually, let's use this time to keep our faith strong. Imagine our spirits shining brightly, bringing warmth to the cold with God's love.

Remember, being ready spiritually isn't just for one season; it's a journey that never stops. No matter what's going on around us, let's stay alert and open to the gentle guidance of the Holy Spirit. Every day is an opportunity to learn and start fresh. As Lent is about to begin shortly, let's use it as a chance to wake up spiritually. We're all on this journey together, finding happiness in renewing our faith each day.

In Christ,

Fr. Abelardo

From the constitution on the sacred Liturgy of the Second Vatican Council
(Sacrosanctum Concilium, nn. 7-8. 106)

Christ is present to his Church

Christ is always present to his Church, especially in the actions of the liturgy. He is present in the sacrifice of the Mass, in the person of the minister (it is the same Christ who formerly offered himself on the cross that now offers by the ministry of priests) and most of all under the eucharistic species. He is present in the sacraments by his power, in such a way that when someone baptizes, Christ himself baptizes. He is present in his word, for it is he himself who speaks when the holy Scriptures are read in the Church. Finally, he is present when the Church prays and sings, for he himself promised: Where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there in their midst.

Indeed, in this great work which gives perfect glory to God and brings holiness to men, Christ is always joining in partnership with himself his beloved Bride, the Church, which calls upon its Lord and through him gives worship to the eternal Father.

It is therefore right to see the liturgy as an exercise of the priestly office of Jesus Christ, in which through signs addressed to the senses man's sanctification is signified and, in a way proper to each of these signs, made effective, and in which public worship is celebrated in its fullness by the mystical body of Jesus Christ, that is, by the head and by his members.

Accordingly, every liturgical celebration, as an activity of Christ the priest and of his body, which is the Church, is a sacred action of a pre-eminent kind. No other action of the Church equals its title to power or its degree of effectiveness.

In the liturgy on earth we are given a foretaste and share in the liturgy of heaven, celebrated in the holy city of Jerusalem, the goal of our pilgrimage, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God, as minister of the sanctuary and of the true tabernacle. With the whole company of heaven we sing a hymn of praise to the Lord; as we reverence the memory of the saints, we hope to have some part with them, and to share in their fellowship; we wait for the Savior, our Lord Jesus Christ, until he, who is our life, appears, and we appear with him in glory.

By an apostolic tradition taking its origin from the very day of Christ's resurrection, the Church celebrates the paschal mystery every eighth day, the day that is rightly called the Lord's day. On Sunday the Christian faithful ought to gather together, so that by listening to the word of God and sharing in the Eucharist they may recall the passion, death and resurrection of the Lord Jesus and give thanks to God who has given them a new birth with a lively hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. The Lord's day is therefore the first and greatest festival, one to be set before the loving devotion of the faithful and impressed upon it, so that it may be also a day of joy and of freedom from work. Other celebrations must not take precedence over it, unless they are truly of the greatest importance, since it is the foundation and the kernel of the whole liturgical year.

DE LA OFICINA DEL PÁRROCO

Queridos Amigos,

A medida que enero llega a su fin, nos estamos preparando para el inicio de la Cuaresma el 14 de febrero. Este tiempo de reflexión, oración y preparación nos brinda la oportunidad de fortalecer nuestra relación con el Señor.

El abrazo del invierno, con sus mantas de nieve, puede generar una inclinación natural hacia la pereza. Sin embargo, en el frío hay una invitación al descanso, no solo físicamente, sino también espiritualmente. En lugar de permitir que esta temporada se convierta en un tiempo de hibernación espiritual, aprovechemos la oportunidad para avivar el fuego de nuestra fe. Que nuestros espíritus ardan con fuerza, iluminando el frío con el calor del amor de Dios.

Es crucial entender que la preparación espiritual va más allá de una temporada específica; es un viaje continuo. Independientemente de las condiciones externas, mantengámonos vigilantes, manteniendo nuestros corazones receptivos a la guía suave del Espíritu Santo. Cada día que vivimos se presenta como una nueva oportunidad para el crecimiento y la renovación.

Al estar al borde de la Cuaresma, que esta temporada sea una oportunidad nueva para un despertar espiritual profundo. Apoyémonos mutuamente en este viaje sagrado, encontrando alegría en la renovación continua de nuestra fe.

En Cristo,

Padre Abelardo

De la Constitución Sacrosanctum Concilium, sobre la sagrada liturgia, del Concilio Vaticano segundo
(Núms. 7-8.106)

CRISTO ESTÁ PRESENTE EN SU IGLESIA

Cristo está siempre presente en su Iglesia, sobre todo en la acción litúrgica. Está presente en el sacrificio de la misa, tanto en la persona del ministro, ofreciéndose ahora por ministerio de los sacerdotes el mismo que entonces se ofreció en la cruz, como, sobre todo, bajo las especies eucarísticas. Está presente con su fuerza en los sacramentos, de modo que, cuando alguien bautiza, es Cristo quien bautiza. Está presente en su palabra, pues, cuando se lee en la Iglesia la sagrada Escritura, es él quien habla. Está presente, por último, cuando la Iglesia suplica y canta salmos, pues él mismo prometió: Donde dos o tres estén reunidos en mi nombre, allí estoy yo en medio de ellos.

En verdad, en esta obra tan grande, por la que Dios es perfectamente glorificado y los hombres santificados, Cristo asocia siempre consigo a su amadísima esposa, la Iglesia, que invoca a su Señor y por él tributa culto al Padre eterno. Con razón, pues, se considera a la liturgia como el ejercicio del sacerdocio de Jesucristo. En ella, los signos sensibles significan y realizan, cada uno a su manera, la santificación del hombre; y así el cuerpo místico de Jesucristo, es decir, la cabeza y sus miembros, ejerce el culto público íntegro.

En consecuencia, toda celebración litúrgica, por ser obra de Cristo sacerdote y de su cuerpo, que es la Iglesia, es la acción sagrada por excelencia, cuya eficacia no es igualada, con el mismo título y en el mismo grado, por ninguna otra acción de la Iglesia.

En la liturgia terrena participamos, pregustándola, de aquella liturgia celestial que se celebra en la ciudad santa de Jerusalén, hacia la cual nos dirigimos como peregrinos, y donde Cristo, ministro del santuario y de la tienda verdadera, está sentado a la derecha de Dios; con todos los coros celestiales, cantamos en la liturgia el himno de la gloria del Señor; veneramos la memoria de los santos, esperando ser admitidos en su asamblea; aguardamos un Salvador: el Señor Jesucristo, hasta que aparezca él, vida nuestra; entonces también nosotros apareceremos, juntamente con él, en gloria.

La Iglesia, por una tradición apostólica que se remonta al mismo día de la resurrección de Cristo, celebra el misterio pascual cada ocho días, en el día que es llamado con razón día del Señor o Domingo. En este día, los fieles deben reunirse a fin de que, escuchando la palabra de Dios y participando en la eucaristía, celebren el memorial de la pasión, resurrección y gloria del Señor Jesús, y den gracias a Dios, que, por la resurrección de Jesucristo de entre los muertos, nos ha hecho nacer de nuevo para una esperanza viva. Por esto, el Domingo es la fiesta primordial, que debe inculcarse a la piedad de los fieles, de modo que sea también día de alegría y de liberación del trabajo. No deben anteponérsele otras solemnidades, a no ser que sean realmente de suma importancia, puesto que el Domingo es el fundamento y el núcleo de todo el año litúrgico.
