Saint Charles Parish Needs You and You Need Saint Charles Parish!

By registering at a parish, you are declaring your desire to be part of a Catholic faith community. If you have recently moved to the area or if you are a long-time resident, please consider registering at the parish where you participate. There's usually information in a parish bulletin or in the pew racks about how to register. When in doubt, ask a priest after Mass. In most cases, you will need to visit the parish office and fill out a simple form or register online.

Top Reasons to Register at a Parish

- A sense of belonging and identity in a parish community.
- It is a commitment to practice your faith.
- Registration enables the parish pastor and staff to get to know you better, to welcome you and to minister to you. This is especially important during a time of crisis so that the pastoral staff can attend to your spiritual needs and the needs of your family.
- Registration helps you stay connected with your parish and helps your parish stay connected with you. Providing your contact information is important so that parishes provide you timely updates via email, direct mail, phone, etc. Also, if you use offertory envelopes or online giving, you will also receive a year-end statement of your donations for income tax purposes. Once you are registered, please notify the parish office of any changes in address or phone number.
- Registered active members are eligible for sponsor/godparent validation.
- Registered active members are sometimes eligible to rent parish facilities.
- Census numbers may determine how many priests are assigned to a parish and how many Masses and enrichment programs are planned and

Your loved one's cremated remains (cremains) can be buried (interred) in the sacred ground of an existing plot, or you can purchase a new plot, family estate, private or community mausoleum or columbarium at one of our nine cemeteries.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear brothers and sisters,

Throughout the next few weeks, I will be inviting you to read and reflect on different letters and homilies from various saints. It is important as Catholics that our church know the life and thoughts of the Saints, since we are called to be saints. We will find in them a lot of wisdom and knowledge, but they will also be of great consolation to us.

Today I invite you to reflect on this paragraph From a sermon on Baptism by Saint Pacian, bishop

From a sermon by Saint Augustine, bishop

The Lord has had pity on us

Happy are we if we do the deeds of which we have heard and sung. Our hearing of them means having them planted in us, while our doing them shows that the seed has borne fruit. By saying this, I wish to caution you, dearly beloved, not to enter the Church fruitlessly, satisfied with mere hearing of such mighty blessings and failing to do good works. For we have been saved by his grace, says the Apostle, and not by our works, lest anyone may boast; for it is by his grace that we have been saved. It is not as if a good life of some sort came first, and that thereupon God showed his love and esteem for it from on high, saying: "Let us come to the aid of these men and assist them quickly because they are living a good life." No, our life was displeasing to him. He will, therefore, condemn what we have done but he will save what he himself has done in us. We were not good, but God had pity on us and sent his Son to die, not for good men but for bad ones, not for the just but for the wicked. Yes, Christ died for the ungodly. Notice what is written next: One will hardly die for a righteous man, though perhaps for a good man one will dare even to die. Perhaps someone can be found who will dare to die for a good man; but for the unjust man, for the wicked one, the sinner, who would be willing to die except Christ alone who is so just that he justifies even the unjust? And so, my brothers, we had no good works, for all our works were evil. Yet although men's actions were such, God in his mercy did not abandon men. He sent his Son to redeem us, not with gold or silver but at the price of his blood poured out for us. Christ, the spotless lamb, became the sacrificial victim, led to the slaughter for the sheep that were blemished—if indeed one can say that they were blemished and not entirely corrupt. Such is the grace we have received! Let us live so as to be worthy of that great grace, and not do injury to it. So mighty is the physician who has come to us that he has healed all our sins! If we choose to be sick once again, we will not only harm ourselves, but show ingratitude to the physician as well. Let us then follow Christ's paths which he has revealed to us, above all the path of humility, which he himself became for us. He showed us that path by his precepts, and he himself followed it by his suffering on our behalf. In order to die for us—because as God he could not die—the Word became flesh and dwelt among us. The immortal One took on mortality that he might die for us, and by dying put to death our death. This is what the Lord did, this the gift he granted to us. The mighty one was brought low, the lowly one was slain, and after he was slain, he rose again and was exalted. For he did not intend to leave us dead in hell, but to exalt in himself at the resurrection of the dead those whom he had already exalted and made just by the faith and praise they gave him. Yes, he gave us the path of humility. If we keep to it we shall confess our belief in the Lord and have good reason to sing: We shall praise you, God, we shall praise you and call upon your name.

De la oficina del Párroco

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

A través de las próximas semanas, los estare invitando a leer y reflexionar sobre diferentes, cartas y homilías de varios santos. Es importante como católicos que conozcamos nuestra iglesia la vida y los pensamientos de los Santos, ya que nosotros estamos llamados a ser santos. Encontraremos en ellos mucha sabiduría y conocimiento, pero también serán de mucha consolación para nosotros.

Hoy Los invito a reflexionar en este párrafo De la Constitución pastoral Gaudium et spes, sobre la Iglesia en el mundo actual, De los sermones de san Agustín, obispo

De los sermones de san Agustín, obispo

EL SEÑOR SE HA COMPADECIDO DE NOSOTROS

Dichosos nosotros, si llevamos a la práctica lo que escuchamos y cantamos. Porque cuando escuchamos es como si sembráramos una semilla, y cuando ponemos en práctica lo que hemos oído es como si esta semilla fructificara. Empiezo diciendo esto, porque quisiera exhortaros a que no vengáis nunca a la iglesia de manera infructuosa, limitándoos sólo a escuchar lo que allí se dice, pero sin llevarlo a la práctica. Porque, como dice el Apóstol, estáis salvados por su gracia, pues no se debe a las obras, para que nadie pueda presumir. No ha precedido, en efecto, de parte nuestra una vida santa, cuyas acciones Dios haya podido admirar, diciendo por ello: "Vayamos al encuentro y premieemos a estos hombres, porque la santidad de su vida lo merece". A Dios le desagradaba nuestra vida, le desagradaban nuestras obras; le agradaba, en cambio, lo que él había realizado en nosotros. Por ello, en nosotros, condenó lo que nosotros habíamos realizado y salvó lo que él había obrado. Nosotros, por tanto, no éramos buenos. Y, con todo, él se compadeció de nosotros y nos envió a su Hijo a fin de que muriera, no por los buenos, sino por los malos; no por los justos, sino por los impíos. Dice, en efecto, la Escritura: Cristo murió por los impíos. Y ¿qué se dice a continuación? Apenas habrá quien muera por un justo; por un hombre de bien tal vez se atrevería uno a morir. Es posible, en efecto, encontrar quizás alguno que se atreva a morir por un hombre de bien; pero por un inicuo, por un malhechor, por un pecador; ¿quién querrá entregar su vida, a no ser Cristo, que fue justo hasta tal punto que justificó incluso a los que eran injustos? Ninguna obra buena habíamos realizado, hermanos míos; todas nuestras acciones eran malas. Pero, a pesar de ser malas las obras de los hombres, la misericordia de Dios no abandonó a los humanos. Y Dios envió a su Hijo para que nos rescatara, no con oro o plata, sino a precio de su sangre, la sangre de aquel Cordero sin mancha, llevado al matadero por el bien de los corderos manchados, si es que debe decirse simplemente manchados y no totalmente corrompidos. Tal ha sido, pues, la gracia que hemos recibido. Vivamos, por tanto, dignamente, ayudados por la gracia que hemos recibido y no hagamos injuria a la grandeza del don que nos ha sido dado. Un médico extraordinario ha venido hasta nosotros, y todos nuestros pecados han sido perdonados. Si volvemos a enfermar, no sólo nos dañaremos a nosotros mismos, sino que seremos además ingratos para con nuestro médico. Sigamos, pues, las sendas que él nos indica e imitemos en particular, su humildad, aquella humildad por la que él se rebajó a sí mismo en provecho nuestro. Esta senda de humildad nos la ha enseñado él con sus palabras y, para darnos ejemplo, él mismo anduvo por ella, muriendo por nosotros. Para poder morir por nosotros, siendo como era inmortal, la Palabra se hizo carne y acampó entre nosotros. Así el que era inmortal se revistió de mortalidad para poder morir por nosotros y destruir nuestra muerte con su muerte. Esto fue lo que hizo el Señor, éste el don que nos otorgó: Siendo grande, se humilló; humillado, quiso morir; habiendo muerto, resucitó y fue exaltado para que nosotros no quedáramos abandonados en el abismo, sino que fuéramos exaltados con él en la resurrección de los muertos, los que, ya desde ahora, hemos resucitado por la fe y por la confesión de su nombre.
