FROM THE PASTOR'S OFFICE

Dear Friends,

As we reflect on today's Gospel, we are reminded of the profound impact of encountering the risen Christ. In this passage, Jesus brings peace to his disciples, even amidst their fear and doubt. Through his wounds, he invites Thomas, and all of us, into a deeper understanding of faith. Just as Thomas experienced a transformative moment of belief, we too are called to encounter Jesus in our lives and embrace the blessings of faith, even when we cannot see. May this Easter season be a time of renewed hope and belief in the risen Christ, who continues to offer us peace and transformation. We are also celebrating Divine Mercy Sunday today, a reminder of the boundless mercy and compassion of our Savior.

I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to all the parishioners whose dedication and tireless efforts contributed to the splendor of our Triduum and Easter Celebration. Your commitment to our faith community is truly inspiring and deeply appreciated. Additionally, a warm thank you extends to St. Paul Church in Greenwich for their generous provision of Easter dinners to numerous families. Your selfless act of kindness embodies the spirit of Easter and leaves a lasting impact on those you've touched. Furthermore, I want to convey my appreciation to Saint Catherine of Sienna in Trumbull for their thoughtful gesture of gifting beautiful Easter baskets to our children. Your generosity brings joy and warmth to the hearts of our young ones during this sacred time of year.

In Christ,

Father Abelardo
Pastor

DE LA OFICINA DEL PÁRROCO

Queridos Amigos,

Al reflexionar sobre el Evangelio de hoy, recordamos el profundo impacto de encontrarnos con el Cristo resucitado. En este pasaje, Jesús trae paz a sus discípulos, incluso en medio de su miedo y duda. A través de sus heridas, invita a Tomás, y a todos nosotros, a una comprensión más profunda de la fe. Así como Tomás experimentó un momento transformador de creencia, también nosotros estamos llamados a encontrarnos con Jesús en nuestras vidas y abrazar las bendiciones de la fe, incluso cuando no podemos ver. Que esta temporada de Pascua sea un tiempo de esperanza renovada y creencia en el Cristo resucitado, quien continúa ofreciéndonos paz y transformación. También celebramos hoy el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia, un recordatorio del infinito amor y compasión de nuestro Salvador.

Quiero expresar mi sincero agradecimiento a todos los feligreses cuya dedicación y esfuerzos incansables contribuyeron al esplendor de nuestro Triduo y Celebración de Pascua. Su compromiso con nuestra comunidad de fe es verdaderamente inspirador y profundamente apreciado. Además, quiero agradecer calurosamente a la Iglesia de San Pablo en Greenwich por su generosa provisión de cenas de Pascua a numerosas familias. Su acto desinteresado de bondad encarna el espíritu de la Pascua y deja un impacto duradero en aquellos a quienes han tocado. Además, deseo transmitir mi agradecimiento a Santa Catalina de Siena en Trumbull por su atento gesto de regalar hermosas canastas de Pascua a nuestros niños. Su generosidad trae alegría y calidez a los corazones de nuestros pequeños durante este tiempo sagrado del año.

En Cristo Resucitado,

Padre Abelardo
Párroco
