Saint Charles Parish Needs You and You Need Saint Charles Parish!

By registering at a parish, you are declaring your desire to be part of a Catholic faith community. If you have recently moved to the area or if you are a long-time resident, please consider registering at the parish where you participate. There's usually information in a parish bulletin or in the pew racks about how to register. When in doubt, ask a priest after Mass. In most cases, you will need to visit the parish office and fill out a simple form or register online.

Top Reasons to Register at a Parish

- A sense of belonging and identity in a parish community.
- It is a commitment to practice your faith.
- Registration enables the parish pastor and staff to get to know you better, to welcome you and to minister to you. This is especially important during a time of crisis so that the pastoral staff can attend to your spiritual needs and the needs of your family.
- Registration helps you stay connected with your parish and helps your parish stay connected with you. Providing your contact information is important so that parishes provide you timely updates via email, direct mail, phone, etc. Also, if you use offertory envelopes or online giving, you will also receive a year-end statement of your donations for income tax purposes. Once you are registered, please notify the parish office of any changes in address or phone number.
- Registered active members are eligible for sponsor/godparent validation.
- Registered active members are sometimes eligible to rent parish facilities.
- Census numbers may determine how many priests are assigned to a parish and how many Masses and enrichment programs are planned and scheduled.

Parroquia San Carlos Borromeo Bridgeport, CT

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear brothers and sisters,

Throughout the next few weeks, I will be inviting you to read and reflect on different letters and homilies from various saints. It is important as Catholics that our church know the life and thoughts of the Saints, since we are called to be saints. We will find in them a lot of wisdom and knowledge, but they will also be of great consolation to us.

Today I invite you to reflect on this paragraph from a sermon by

(Sermo 53, 1-2. 4: CCL 23, 214-216)

In Christ,

Father Abelardo

Pastor

From a sermon by Saint Maximus of Turin, bishop

(Sermo 53, 1-2. 4: CCL 23, 214-216)

CHRIST IS THE DAY

No one may share the eucharist with us unless he believes that what we teach is true, unless he is washed in the regenerating waters of baptism for the remission of his sins, and unless he lives in accordance with the principles given us by Christ. We do not consume the eucharistic bread and wine as if it were ordinary food and drink, for we have been taught that as Jesus Christ our Savior became a man of flesh and blood by the power of the Word of God, so also the food that our flesh and blood assimilates for its nourishment becomes the flesh and blood of the incarnate Jesus by the power of his own words contained in the prayer of thanksgiving. The apostles, in their recollections, which are called gospels, handed down to us what Jesus commanded them to do. They tell us that he took bread, gave thanks and said: Do this in memory of me. This is my body. In the same way he took the cup, he gave thanks and said: This is my blood. The Lord gave this command to them alone. Ever since then we have constantly reminded one another of these things. The rich among us help the poor and we are always united. For all that we receive we praise the Creator of the universe through his Son Jesus Christ and through the Holy Spirit. On Sunday we have a common assembly of all our members, whether they live in the city or the outlying districts. The recollections of the apostles or the writings of the prophets are read, as long as there is time. When the reader has finished, the president of the assembly speaks to us; he urges everyone to imitate the examples of virtue we have heard in the readings. Then we all stand up together and pray. On the conclusion of our prayer, bread and wine and water are brought forward. The president offers prayers and gives thanks to the best of his ability, and the people give assent by saying, "Amen." The eucharist is distributed, everyone present communicates, and the deacons take it to those who are absent. The wealthy, if they wish, may make a contribution, and they themselves decide the amount. The collection is placed in the custody of the president, who uses it to help the orphans and widows and all who for any reason are in distress, whether because they are sick, in prison, or away from home. In a word, he takes care of all who are in need. We hold our common assembly on Sunday because it is the first day of the week, the day on which God put darkness and chaos to flight and created the world, and because on that same day our savior Jesus Christ rose from the dead. For he was crucified on Friday and on Sunday he appeared to his apostles and disciples and taught them the things that we have passed on for your consideration. And so your own hope of resurrection, though not yet realized, is sure and certain, because you have received the sacrament or sign of this reality, and have been given the pledge of the Spirit. If, then, you have risen with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Set your hearts on heavenly things, not the things that are on earth. For you have died and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, your life, appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Youth Group

It was a wonderful Palm Sunday with the St Charles Youth Group. We are blessed with such a talented group. Look at the beautiful art work and bracelets they created. They were rewarded today with dinner, an Easter cake and Easter basket.

De la oficina del Párroco

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

A través de las próximas semanas, los estare invitando a leer y reflexionar sobre diferentes, cartas y homilias de varios santos. Es importante como católicos que conozcamos nuestra iglesia la vida y los pensamientos de los Santos, ya que nosotros estamos llamados a ser santos. Encontraremos en ellos mucha sabiduría y conocimiento, pero también serán de mucha consolación para nosotros.

Hoy Los invito a reflexionar en este párrafo De la primera Apología de san Justino, mártir, en defensa de los cristianos

(Cap. 66-67: PB 6, 427-431)

En Cristo,

Padre Abelardo

Pastor

De la primera Apología de san Justino, mártir, en defensa de los cristianos

(Cap. 66-67: PB 6, 427-431)

LA CELEBRACIÓN DE LA EUCARISTÍA

A nadie es lícito participar de la eucaristía si no cree que son verdad las cosas que enseñamos y no se ha purificado en aquel baño que da la remisión de los pecados y la regeneración, y no vive como Cristo nos enseñó. Porque no tomamos estos alimentos como si fueran pan común o una bebida ordinaria; sino que, así como Cristo, nuestro salvador, se hizo carne por la Palabra Dios y tuvo carne y sangre a causa de nuestra salvación de la misma manera, hemos aprendido que el alimento sobre el que fue recitada la acción de gracias que contiene las palabras de Jesús, y con que se alimenta y transforma nuestra sangre y nuestra carne, es precisamente la carne, la sangre de aquel mismo Jesús que se encarnó. Los apóstoles, en efecto, en sus tratados llamados Evangelios, nos cuentan que así les fue mandado, cuando Jesús, tomando pan y dando gracias, dijo: Haced esto en conmemoración mía. Esto es mi cuerpo; y luego, tomando del mismo modo en sus manos el cáliz, dio gracias y dijo: Esto es mi sangre, dándoselo a ellos solos. Desde entonces seguimos recordándonos siempre unos a otros estas cosas; y los que tenemos bienes acudimos en ayuda de los que no los tienen, y permanecemos unidos. Y siempre que presentamos nuestras ofrendas alabamos al Creador de todo por medio de su Hijo Jesucristo y del Espíritu Santo. El día llamado del sol se reúnen todos en un lugar, lo mismo los que habitan en la ciudad que los que viven en el campo, y, según conviene, se leen los tratados de los apóstoles o los escritos de los profetas, según el tiempo lo permita. Luego, cuando el lector termina, el que preside se encarga de amonestar, con palabras de exhortación, a la imitación de cosas tan admirables. Después nos levantamos todos a la vez y recitamos preces; y a continuación, como ya dijimos, una vez que concluyen las plegarias, se trae pan, vino y agua: y el que preside pronuncia fervorosamente preces y acciones de gracias, y el pueblo responde Amén; tras de lo cual se distribuyen los dones sobre los que se ha pronunciado la acción de gracias, comulgan todos, y los diáconos se encargan de llevarse a los ausentes. Los que poseen bienes de fortuna y quieren, cada uno da, a su arbitrio, lo que bien le parece, y lo que se recoge se deposita ante el que preside, que es quien se ocupa de repartirlo entre los huérfanos y las viudas, los que por enfermedad u otra causa cualquiera pasan necesidad, así como a los presos y a los que se hallan de paso como huéspedes; en una palabra, él es quien se encarga de todos los necesitados. Y nos reunimos todos el día del sol, primero porque este día es el primero de la creación, cuando Dios empezó a obrar sobre las tinieblas y la materia; y también porque es el día en que Jesucristo, nuestro Salvador, resucitó de entre los muertos. Le crucificaron, en efecto, la víspera del día de Saturno, y al día siguiente del de Saturno, o sea el día del sol, se dejó ver de sus apóstoles y discípulos y les enseñó todo lo que hemos expuesto a vuestra consideración.

5th Sunday of Easter • John 13:31-33a, 34-35

GOSPEL

Jesus said, "Love each other as I have loved you." He died on the cross so that your sins and mine might be forgiven. Jesus was human like you and me. He shared his food with friends. He visited and healed the sick. He cried when his friends died. He told stories to help people learn about his Father in heaven. When you show love for others, Jesus smiles because he is very proud of you.

PRAYER

Lord, teach me to love and help others.
