FROM THE PASTOR'S OFFICE

Dearly appreciated and beloved members of this parish community,

I am very happy to address each and every one of you, especially during this very special time in our life as a church.

As each of us knows, we are approaching the Easter celebrations, and taking advantage of the readings for this fifth Sunday of Lent, I wish for us to heed the invitation to continue expanding our hearts and look ahead so that we may soon look to the future and begin preparing for our Holy Week (Semana Santa). Moreover, let us take this opportunity to reconcile with God and with our brothers and sisters. This Sunday, we are invited to reflect on how we are living our Lenten journey and what we have done with it. Both you and I are encouraged to discern the newness of this time of grace and salvation.

Additionally, because of the seriousness and commitment we took on since the imposition of the holy ashes, this time reminds us that the distinctive trait of God is being a 'Father' full of Mercy and Love. Experiencing this grace from God is an invitation to contemplate ourselves with eyes of mercy and, likewise, to do so for our brothers and sisters, especially in light of the ugliness of the sin in which you and I find ourselves.

Therefore, I invite you to find in Jesus that liberating strength from God. He is waiting for us with open arms, like the prodigal sons, to forgive us and restore the bonds of communion with Him, with us, and with the Church. Many times, our tendency in life is that, when we are in a state of sin, we distance ourselves from God, abandoning prayer, and refraining from participating in the Sunday or daily Eucharist. We create distance between the Creator, the created, and the creatures, sometimes not realizing that the gap of rupture in communion with God widens, and we walk away from Him.

May the good God, rich in Mercy and Love, bless us all.

In Christ,

Rev. Jose Jesus Montoya

Parochial Vicar

DE LA OFICINA DEL PÁRROCO

Muy apreciados y queridos miembros de esta comunidad parroquial,

Me da mucho gusto dirigirme a todos y cada uno de ustedes, y sobre todo en este tiempo tan especial dentro de nuestra vida de iglesia.

Como cada uno de nosotros sabe, estamos próximos a las fiestas pascuales y, aprovechando las lecturas de este quinto domingo de cuaresma, deseo que atendamos la invitación a seguir ensanchando nuestro corazón, y mirar hacia adelante para que pronto miremos hacia el futuro y adentrarnos desde ya en nuestra Semana Mayor (la Semana Santa). Además, para que aprovechemos y nos reconciliemos con Dios y con nuestros hermanos. Este domingo se nos hace la invitación a reflexionar sobre cómo estamos viviendo nuestra cuaresma y qué hemos hecho de ella. A ti y a mí se nos exhorta a vislumbrar lo novedoso de este tiempo de gracia y de salvación.

Además, por la seriedad y el compromiso que hemos adquirido desde la imposición de la santa ceniza, se nos recuerda en este tiempo que el distintivo de Dios es ser un 'Padre' lleno de Misericordia y de Amor. Experimentar esta gracia de Dios es una invitación a contemplarnos con ojos de misericordia y, de igual forma, a nuestros hermanos, en especial ante la fealdad del pecado en que nos encontramos tú y yo.

Los invito entonces a que encontremos en Jesús esa fuerza liberadora de Dios. Ya que Él nos espera con los brazos abiertos como sus hijos pródigos para perdonarnos y restablecer los lazos de comunión con Él, con nosotros, con la Iglesia. Muchas veces, nuestra tendencia en la vida es que, si estamos en situación de pecado, nos alejamos de Dios, abandonamos la oración y no participamos de la Eucaristía dominical o diaria. Y nos ponemos a distancia entre el Creador, lo creado y las criaturas, a veces sin caer en la cuenta de que se abre más la brecha de la ruptura de la comunión con Dios, caminamos de espaldas a Él.

Que el buen Dios, rico en Misericordia y Amor, nos bendiga a todos.

En Cristo,
Rev. Jose Jesus Montoya
Vicario Parroquial

PARISH EVENTS

SAMARITAN FRIDAY IN OAXACA

We are excited to share photos of the theatrical presentation of La Samaritana 2025, thanks to the young members of the dance group Hijos de la Virgen de Juquila.

Some of the religious customs in Oaxaca during this Lenten season include reenacting the encounter between the Samaritan Woman and Jesus. Additionally, there is the blessing of wells in homes and the traditional sharing of Aguas Frescas (horchata, Jamaica, etc.).

It's more than just a tradition; it's a gathering of faith and reflection where we give thanks to God and share life together.
