Saint Charles Parish Needs You and You Need Saint Charles Parish!

By registering at a parish, you are declaring your desire to be part of a Catholic faith community. If you have recently moved to the area or if you are a long-time resident, please consider registering at the parish where you participate. There's usually information in a parish bulletin or in the pew racks about how to register. When in doubt, ask a priest after Mass. In most cases, you will need to visit the parish office and fill out a simple form or register online.

Top Reasons to Register at a Parish

- A sense of belonging and identity in a parish community.
- It is a commitment to practice your faith.
- Registration enables the parish pastor and staff to get to know you better, to welcome you and to minister to you. This is especially important during a time of crisis so that the pastoral staff can attend to your spiritual needs and the needs of your family.
- Registration helps you stay connected with your parish and helps your parish stay connected with you. Providing your contact information is important so that parishes provide you timely updates via email, direct mail, phone, etc. Also, if you use offertory envelopes or online giving, you will also receive a year-end statement of your donations for income tax purposes. Once you are registered, please notify the parish office of any changes in address or phone number.
- Registered active members are eligible for sponsor/godparent validation.
- Registered active members are sometimes eligible to rent parish facilities.
- Census numbers may determine how many priests are assigned to a parish and how many Masses and enrichment programs are planned and scheduled.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear brothers and sisters,

Throughout the next few weeks, I will be inviting you to read and reflect on different letters and homilies from various saints. It is important as Catholics that our church know the life and thoughts of the Saints, since we are called to be saints. We will find in them a lot of wisdom and knowledge, but they will also be of great consolation to us.

Today I invite you to reflect on this paragraph From a sermon by Saint Augustine, bishop

(Serm. 19,2-3: CCL 41, 252-254)

In Christ,

Father Abelardo

Pastor

From a sermon by Saint Augustine, bishop

(Serm. 19,2-3: CCL 41, 252-254)

A SACRIFICE TO GOD IS A CONTRITE SPIRIT

I acknowledge my transgression, says David. If I admit my fault, then you will pardon it. Let us never assume that if we live good lives we will be without sin; our lives should be praised only when we continue to beg for pardon. But men are hopeless creatures, and the less they concentrate on their own sins, the more interested they become in the sins of others. They seek to criticize, not to correct. Unable to excuse themselves, they are ready to accuse others. This was not the way that David showed us how to pray and make amends to God, when he said: I acknowledge my transgression, and my sin is ever before me. He did not concentrate on others' sins; he turned his thoughts on himself. He did not merely stroke the surface, but he plunged inside and went deep down within himself. He did not spare himself, and therefore was not impudent in asking to be spared. Do you want God to be appeased? Learn what you are to do that God may be pleased with you. Consider the psalm again: If you wanted sacrifice, I would indeed have given it; in burnt offerings you will take no delight. Are you then to be without sacrifice? Are you to offer nothing? Will you please God without an offering? Consider what you read in the same psalm: If you wanted sacrifice, I would indeed have given it; in burnt offerings you will take no delight. But continue to listen, and say with David: A sacrifice to God is a contrite spirit; God does not despise a contrite and humble heart. Cast aside your former offerings, for now you have found out what you are to offer. In the days of your fathers you would have made offerings of cattle these were the sacrifices. If you wanted sacrifice, I would indeed have given it. These then, Lord, you do not want, and yet you do want sacrifice. You will take no delight in burnt offerings, David says. If you will not take delight in burnt offerings, will you remain without sacrifice? Not at all. A sacrifice to God is a contrite spirit; God does not despise a contrite and humble heart. You now have the offering you are to make. No need to examine the herd, no need to outfit ships and travel to the most remote provinces in search of incense. Search within your heart for what is pleasing to God. Your heart must be crushed. Are you afraid that it might perish so? You have the reply: Create a clean heart in me, O God. For a clean heart to be created, the unclean one must be crushed. We should be displeased with ourselves when we commit sin, for sin is displeasing to God. Sinful though we are, let us at least be like God in this, that we are displeased at what displeases him. In some measure then you will be in harmony with God's will, because you find displeasing in yourself what is abhorrent to your Creator.

St. Charles Youth Group Corner

Proud to announce that this month's St. Charles Borromeo Youth Group youth of the month is Axel Reilly. Axel is 9 years old and attends Waltersville School. Axel has been an active member of St. Charles' Youth Group for over two years, since then he participated in several of our events. Axel enjoys arts and crafts, especially painting. His favorite color is teal and his favorite sport is Tennis. In his free time he likes to run. Recently he joined his two sisters Katey and Genesis as an alter server. All of us who know Axel are very proud of him and his accomplishments. Let us all from the St. Charles community encourage him to continue many more great accomplishments and to keep striving to reach the stars.

De la oficina del Párroco

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

A través de las próximas semanas, los estare invitando a leer y reflexionar sobre diferentes, cartas y homilias de varios santos. Es importante como católicos que conozcamos nuestra iglesia la vida y los pensamientos de los Santos, ya que nosotros estamos llamados a ser santos. Encontraremos en ellos mucha sabiduría y conocimiento, pero también serán de mucha consolación para nosotros.

Hoy Los invito a reflexionar en este párrafo De los sermones de san Agustín, obispo

(Serm. 19,2-3: CCL 41, 252-254)

En Cristo,

Padre Abelardo

Pastor

De los sermones de san Agustín, obispo

(Serm. 19,2-3: CCL 41, 252-254)

MI SACRIFICIO ES UN ESPÍRITU QUEBRANTADO

Yo reconozco mi culpa, dice el salmista. Si yo la reconozco, dígnete tú perdonarla. No tengamos en modo alguno la presunción de que vivimos rectamente y sin pecado. Lo que atestigua a favor de nuestra vida es el reconocimiento de nuestras culpas. Los hombres sin remedio son aquellos que dejan de atender a sus propios pecados para fijarse en los de los demás. No buscan lo que hay que corregir, sino en qué pueden morder. Y, al no poderse excusar a sí mismos, están siempre dispuestos a acusar a los demás. No es así como nos enseña el salmo a orar y dar a Dios satisfacción, ya que dice: Pues yo reconozco mi culpa, tengo siempre presente mi pecado. El que así ora no atiende a los pecados ajenos, sino que se examina a sí mismo, y no de manera superficial, como quien palpa, sino profundizando en su interior. No se perdona a sí mismo, y por esto precisamente puede atreverse a pedir perdón. ¿Quieres aplacar a Dios? Conoce lo que has de hacer contigo mismo para que Dios te sea propicio. Atiende a lo que dice el mismo salmo: Los sacrificios no te satisfacen: si te ofreciera un holocausto, no lo querrías. Por tanto, ¿es que has de prescindir del sacrificio? ¿Significa esto que podrás aplacar a Dios sin ninguna oblación? ¿Qué dice el salmo? Los sacrificios no te satisfacen: si te ofreciera un holocausto, no lo querrías. Pero continúa y verás que dice: Mi sacrificio es un espíritu quebrantado; un corazón quebrantado y humillado, tú no lo desprecias. Dios rechaza los antiguos sacrificios, pero te enseña qué es lo que has de ofrecer. Nuestros padres ofrecían víctimas de sus rebaños, y éste era su sacrificio. Los sacrificios no te satisfacen, pero quieres otra clase de sacrificios. Si te ofreciera un holocausto -dice-, no lo querrías. Si no quieres, pues, holocaustos, ¿vas a quedar sin sacrificios? De ningún modo. Mi sacrificio es un espíritu quebrantado; un corazón quebrantado y humillado, tú no lo desprecias. Éste es el sacrificio que has de ofrecer. No busques en el rebaño, no prepares navíos para navegar hasta las más lejanas tierras a buscar perfumes. Busca en tu corazón la ofrenda grata a Dios. El corazón es lo que hay que quebrantar. Y no temas perder el corazón al quebrantarlo, pues dice también el salmo: Oh Dios, crea en mi un corazón puro. Para que sea creado este corazón puro, hay que quebrantar antes el impuro. Sintamos disgusto de nosotros mismos cuando pecamos, ya que el pecado disgusta a Dios. Y, ya que no estamos libres de pecado, por lo menos asemejémonos a Dios en nuestro disgusto por lo que a él le disgusta. Así tu voluntad coincide en algo con la de Dios, en cuanto que te disgusta lo mismo que odia tu Hacedor.

Spiritual Retreat

On Saturday, we were blessed with an amazing time at St. Margaret Shrine as our Confirmation Candidates participated in a spiritual retreat. Father Abelardo stopped by to acknowledge the candidates and share the beautiful message of the Holy Spirit with his speech. The candidates participated making a rosary, reciting the rosary, viewing a video on the Holy Spirit and decorating their cross.
