Caring for our Retired Priests

"After retiring in 2017, I moved into the retirement home of Queen of the Clergy. Once I was settled in, it quickly became obvious that many of our parishes now had only one priest to serve them. I committed myself to helping our at three parishes on a regular basis. It brought great satisfaction to me as a priest to be able to continue to minister, celebrate the liturgy and preach the word of God. It was a great opportunity for me to be part of different communities and to use my gifts to assist people on their spiritual journey.

- Msgr. Robert J. Crofut, Retired Priest

Thank you for your support of the Catherine Dennis Keefe Queen of the Clergy Residence through the Bishop's Appeal. Together, One in Christ, we can continue to support our clergy in their retirement.

To support this important ministry and work in our Diocese, please consider making your gift to the Bishop's Appeal today!

FROM THE PASTOR'S OFFICE

Dear Friends,

II. THE REVELATION OF GOD AS TRINITY

The Father revealed by the Son

In many religious traditions, God is called "Father" to highlight His role as the Creator and sustainer of all life. In Israel, God is Father not only because He created the world but also because of His covenant with His people, Israel, whom He calls His "first-born son." God is especially the Father to the vulnerable, such as the poor, orphans, and widows, showing His tender care and protection.

The title "Father" reveals two key truths: God is both the origin and sovereign authority over creation, and He is also loving and nurturing toward His children. While the parental image expresses God's closeness to humanity, it reminds us that human parents are imperfect in comparison to God's perfect love. Human fatherhood and motherhood can offer only a limited glimpse of God's infinite care.

It's also crucial to recognize that God transcends human notions of gender and parenthood. Though human parents provide an imperfect reflection of divine care, God is neither male nor female and is beyond any human concept of fatherhood or motherhood. While He is the source and standard of both, His divine nature is not confined to human categories. God's fatherhood, therefore, is not a literal human role but a perfect expression of His transcendence and immanence—His ability to be both beyond us and intimately present with us.

In Christ,

Rev. J. Abelardo Vasquez

Pastor

Queridos Amigos,

II. LA REVELACIÓN DE DIOS COMO TRINIDAD

El Padre revelado por el Hijo

En muchas tradiciones religiosas, a Dios se le llama "Padre" para resaltar Su rol como Creador y sustentador de toda la vida. En Israel, Dios es Padre no solo porque creó el mundo, sino también por Su pacto con Su pueblo, Israel, a quien llama Su "hijo primogénito". Dios es especialmente Padre de los vulnerables, como los pobres, los huérfanos y las viudas, mostrando Su tierno cuidado y protección.

El título "Padre" revela dos verdades clave: Dios es tanto el origen y la autoridad soberana sobre la creación, como también es amoroso y nutritivo hacia Sus hijos. Aunque la imagen parental expresa la cercanía de Dios con la humanidad, nos recuerda que los padres humanos son imperfectos en comparación con el amor perfecto de Dios. La paternidad y maternidad humanas solo pueden ofrecer una visión limitada del cuidado infinito de Dios.

También es crucial reconocer que Dios trasciende las nociones humanas de género y paternidad. Aunque los padres humanos proporcionan una reflexión imperfecta del cuidado divino, Dios no es ni hombre ni mujer y está más allá de cualquier concepto humano de paternidad o maternidad. Aunque Él es la fuente y el estándar de ambos, Su naturaleza divina no está limitada por categorías humanas. La paternidad de Dios, por lo tanto, no es un rol humano literal, sino una expresión perfecta de Su trascendencia e inmanencia: Su capacidad para ser tanto más allá de nosotros como íntimamente presente con nosotros.

En Cristo,

Rev. J. Abelardo Vasquez
