Saint Charles Parish Needs You and You Need Saint Charles Parish!

By registering at a parish, you are declaring your desire to be part of a Catholic faith community. If you have recently moved to the area or if you are a long-time resident, please consider registering at the parish where you participate. There's usually information in a parish bulletin or in the pew racks about how to register. When in doubt, ask a priest after Mass. In most cases, you will need to visit the parish office and fill out a simple form or register online.

Top Reasons to Register at a Parish

- A sense of belonging and identity in a parish community.
- It is a commitment to practice your faith.
- Registration enables the parish pastor and staff to get to know you better, to welcome you and to minister to you. This is especially important during a time of crisis so that the pastoral staff can attend to your spiritual needs and the needs of your family.
- Registration helps you stay connected with your parish and helps your parish stay connected with you. Providing your contact information is important so that parishes provide you timely updates via email, direct mail, phone, etc. Also, if you use offertory envelopes or online giving, you will also receive a year-end statement of your donations for income tax purposes. Once you are registered, please notify the parish office of any changes in address or phone number.
- Registered active members are eligible for sponsor/godparent validation.
- Registered active members are sometimes eligible to rent parish facilities.
- Census numbers may determine how many priests are assigned to a parish and how many Masses and enrichment programs are planned and scheduled.

LIVE THE LITURGY
Inspiration for the week

Mercy makes us attentive to the voice of truth. We do not know what ever happened to the woman caught in adultery, after her encounter with Jesus. It is hoped that she found what she needed to feel true sorrow. What we do know is that through his gentle and wise persuasiveness, Jesus puts the Pharisees in their place and opens the door to grace for this child of God. Being exploited and used to test and discredit Jesus, she who is publicly known to be a sinner is now the victim. Jesus never tolerates people being used and immediately rushes to her defense. As the author of mercy, Jesus became her advocate and opened the door for her to God's love. Jesus also stands between us and the harsh, judgmental, and often hurtful stance of our world. He invites us to grace, to leave the sin that binds us, and for which we are often criticized, and pursue a life of virtue and freedom.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Benedict the African (1524-1589), was born in San Fratello, Sicily to Cristoforo and Diana Manasser, Africans who had been taken as slaves. Some accounts claim that because of his parents' loyal service that Benedict was given his freedom at birth, other sources say that his freedom was granted when he turned 18. At 21 Benedict joined a society of hermits living under the rule of St. Francis of Assisi. Eventually he succeeded his friend, Jerome Lanze, as their leader. When the Pope disbanded the independent hermit society, Benedict joined the Order of Friars Minor and he was sent to Palermo, to the Franciscan Friary of St. Mary of Jesus. There Benedict worked in the kitchens and despite being illiterate and a lay brother (not a priest), he also served as Master of Novices, and as Guardian of the Community. St. Benedict was known throughout his life as a brilliant cook under whose hands food seemed to multiply miraculously, a healer, and a spiritual leader with profound understanding. He is recognized as the patron saint of African Americans.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear brothers and sisters,

Throughout the next few weeks, I will be inviting you to read and reflect on different letters and homilies from various saints. It is important as Catholics that our church know the life and thoughts of the Saints, since we are called to be saints. We will find in them a lot of wisdom and knowledge, but they will also be of great consolation to us.

Today I invite you to reflect on this paragraph from an Easter letter by Saint Athanasius, bishop

(Ep. 14, 1-2: PG 26, 1419-1420)

In Christ,

Father Abelardo

Pastor

From an Easter letter by Saint Athanasius, bishop

(Ep. 14, 1-2: PG 26, 1419-1420)

WE KEEP THE COMING FEAST OF THE LORD THROUGH DEEDS, NOT WORDS

The Word who became all things for us is close to us, our Lord Jesus Christ who promises to remain with us always. He cries out, saying: See, I am with you all the days of this age. He is himself the shepherd, the high priest, the way and the door, and has become all things at once for us. In the same way, he has come among us as our feast and holy day as well. The blessed Apostle says of him who was awaited: Christ has been sacrificed as our Passover. It was Christ who shed his light on the psalmist as he prayed: You are my joy, deliver me from those surrounding me. True joy, genuine festival, means the casting out of wickedness. To achieve this one must live a life of perfect goodness and, in the serenity of the fear of God, practice contemplation in one's heart. This was the way of the saints, who in their lifetime and at every stage of life rejoiced as at a feast. Blessed David, for example, not once but seven times rose at night to win God's favor through prayer. The great Moses was full of joy as he sang God's praises in hymns of victory for the defeat of Pharaoh and the oppressors of the Hebrew people. Others had hearts filled always with gladness as they performed their sacred duty of worship, like the great Samuel and the blessed Elijah. Because of their holy lives they gained freedom, and now keep festival in heaven. They rejoice after their pilgrimage in shadows, and now distinguish the reality from the promise. When we celebrate the feast in our own day, what path are we to take? As we draw near to this feast, who is to be our guide? Beloved, it must be none other than the one whom you will address with me as our Lord Jesus Christ. He says: I am the way. As blessed John tells us: it is Christ who takes away the sin of the world. It is he who purifies our souls, as the prophet Jeremiah says: Stand upon the ways; look and see which is the good path, and you will find in it the way of amendment for your souls. In former times the blood of goats and the ashes of a calf were sprinkled on those who were unclean, but they were able to purify only the body. Now through the grace of God's Word everyone is made abundantly clean. If we follow Christ closely we shall be allowed, even on this earth, to stand as it were on the threshold of the heavenly Jerusalem, and enjoy the contemplation of that everlasting feast, like the blessed apostles, who in following the Savior as their leader, showed, and still show, the way to obtain the same gift from God. They said: See, we have left all things and followed you. We too follow the Lord, and we keep his feast by deeds rather than by words.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

A través de las próximas semanas, los estare invitando a leer y reflexionar sobre diferentes, cartas y homilias de varios santos. Es importante como católicos que conozcamos nuestra iglesia la vida y los pensamientos de los Santos, ya que nosotros estamos llamados a ser santos. Encontraremos en ellos mucha sabiduría y conocimiento, pero también serán de mucha consolación para nosotros.

Hoy Los invito a reflexionar en este párrafo de las cartas pascales de san Atanasio, obispo

(Carta 14, 1-2: PG 26, 1419-1420)

En Cristo,

Padre Abelardo

Pastor

De las cartas pascales de san Atanasio, obispo

(Carta 14, 1-2: PG 26, 1419-1420)

VAMOS PREPARANDO LA CERCANA FIESTA DEL SEÑOR NO SÓLO CON PALABRAS, SINO TAMBIÉN CON OBRAS

El Verbo, que por nosotros quiso serlo todo, nuestro Señor Jesucristo, está cerca de nosotros, ya que él prometió que estaría continuamente a nuestro lado. Dijo en efecto: Sabed que yo estoy con vosotros todos los días hasta el fin del mundo. Y, del mismo modo que es pastor, sumo sacerdote, camino y puerta, ya que en nosotros quiso serlo todo, así también se nos ha revelado como fiesta y solemnidad, según aquellas palabras del Apóstol: Ha sido inmolada nuestra víctima pascual: Cristo; puesto que su persona era la Pascua esperada. Desde esta perspectiva, cobran un nuevo sentido aquellas palabras del salmista: Tú eres mi júbilo: me libras de los males que me rodean. En esto consiste el verdadero júbilo pascual, la genuina celebración de la gran solemnidad, en vernos libres de nuestros males; para llegar a ello, tenemos que esforzarnos en reformar nuestra conducta y en meditar asiduamente, en la quietud del temor de Dios. Así también los santos, mientras vivían en este mundo, estaban siempre alegres, como si siempre estuvieran celebrando fiesta; uno de ellos, el bienaventurado salmista, se levantaba de noche, no una sola vez, sino siete, para hacerse propicio a Dios con sus plegarias. Otro, el insigne Moisés, expresaba en himnos y cantos de alabanza su alegría por la victoria obtenida sobre el Faraón y los demás que habían oprimido a los hebreos con duros trabajos. Otros, finalmente, vivían entregados con alegría al culto divino, como el gran Samuel y el bienaventurado Elías; ellos, gracias a sus piadosas costumbres, alcanzaron la libertad, y ahora celebran en el cielo la fiesta eterna, se alegran de su antigua peregrinación, realizada en medio de tinieblas, y contemplan ya la verdad que antes sólo habían vislumbrado. Nosotros, que nos preparamos para la gran solemnidad, ¿qué camino hemos de seguir? Y, al acercarnos a aquella fiesta, ¿a quién hemos de tomar por guía? No a otro, amados hermanos, y en esto estaremos de acuerdo vosotros y yo, no a otro, fuera de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, el cual dice: Yo soy el camino. Él es, como dice san Juan, el que quita el pecado del mundo; él es quien purifica nuestras almas, como dice en cierto lugar el profeta Jeremías: Paraos en los caminos a mirar, preguntad: «¿Cuál es el buen camino?», seguidlo, y hallaréis reposo para vuestras almas.

En otro tiempo, la sangre de los machos cabríos y la ceniza de la ternera esparcida sobre los impuros podía sólo santificar con miras a una pureza legal externa; mas ahora, por la gracia del Verbo de Dios, obtenemos una limpieza total; y así en seguida formaremos parte de su escolta y podremos ya desde ahora, como situados en el vestíbulo de la Jerusalén celestial, preludiar aquella fiesta eterna; como los santos apóstoles, que siguieron al Salvador como a su guía, y por esto eran, y continúan siendo hoy, los maestros de este favor divino; ellos decían, en efecto: Nosotros lo hemos dejado todo y te hemos seguido. También nosotros nos esforzamos por seguir al Señor y, así, vamos preparando la fiesta del Señor no sólo con palabras, sino también con obras.

DRAW

Draw a picture of Jesus right next to you, helping you after you have done something wrong.

GOSPEL

When we do something wrong, God does not want to punish us. God just wants us to stop, learn from our mistake, and make better choices next time. Try to remember that the next time you catch a friend sinning. Instead of tattling, talk to your friend, and gently help your friend do what is right.

Dear God, help me to be kind to my friends when they make mistakes. Help me remember that sometimes I make bad choices, too.
