FROM THE PASTOR'S OFFICE

Dear friends,

Last Saturday, we celebrated the Mass of the Feast Day of our Patron Saint Charles Borromeo.

The Mass started with a beautiful procession of the relics of Saint Charles. We remembered the great effort that the Irish community made to build this temple over 121 years ago. In order to accomplish this great project they had to work in unity, without complaining but with the goal to have a worthy place to worship and celebrate the sacraments.

We are encouraged to imitate this Irish community and to keep serving together as one, as Jesus Christ is one with the Father, so the others outside can see his spirit in us. I also want to express my gratitude to Father Churchill, Father Ivanildo and Father Ricardo for their love and great service to our Parish and thank you to everyone who attended this beautiful celebration!

In Christ,
Fr. Abelardo

From a homily written in the second century

(Cap. 1,1-2, 7: Funk 1, 145-149)

Christ willed to save those who were perishing

Brethren, we ought to regard Jesus Christ as God and judge of the living and the dead. We should not hold our Savior in low esteem for if we esteem him but little, we may hope to obtain but little from him. Moreover, people who hear these things and think them of small importance commit sin, and we ourselves sin if we do not realize what we have been called from, who has called us, and to what place, and how much suffering Jesus Christ endured on our account.

How then shall we repay him? What fruit can we bear that would be worthy of what he has given us? For how many benefits are we not in his debt! He has enlightened our minds; he has called us sons as a father does; he saved us when we were about to perish. How then shall we praise him, how repay him for his gifts? Spiritually blind, we worshiped stones and pieces of wood, gold and silver and bronze, things made by men, and our whole life was death. Darkness enfolded us, and nothing but gloom met our eyes. Then, by his will, we escaped from the cloud that enveloped us and recovered our sight. For he saw our many errors and the damnation that awaited us, and knowing that apart from him we had no hope of salvation, he pitied us, and in his mercy saved us. He called us when we were not his people and willed us to become his people.

Rejoice, O barren woman who never bore a child; break into shouts of joy, you who never knew a mother's pangs; for the deserted wife shall have more children than she who has a husband. When he says: Rejoice O barren woman who never bore a child, he is speaking of us, for our Church was barren until children were given her. When he says: Break into shouts of joy, you who never knew a mother's pangs, he means that we should not grow weary like women in labor, but tirelessly and in all simplicity offer our prayers to God. He declares that the deserted wife shall have more children than she who has a husband, because faith has now made our people who seemed to have been deserted by God more numerous than those who were thought to possess him.

Another text says: I have come not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance, for it is those who are perishing who must be saved. It is a great and wonderful work to uphold those who are falling, rather than those who already stand firm. Christ willed to save people who were in danger of losing their souls, and he has been the salvation of many. When we were on the point of perishing, he came and called us.

DE LA OFICINA DEL PÁRROCO

Queridos Amigos,

El sábado pasado celebramos la Misa de la Fiesta de nuestro Patrón San Carlos Borromeo. La misa comenzó con una hermosa procesión de las reliquias de San Carlos. Recordamos el gran esfuerzo que hizo la comunidad irlandesa para construir este templo hace más de 121 años. Para poder realizar este gran proyecto tuvieron que trabajar en unidad, sin quejarse pero con el objetivo de tener un lugar digno para adorar y celebrar los sacramentos. Los animo a que juntos tratemos de imitar a esta comunidad irlandesa y a seguir sirviendo juntos como uno, así como Jesucristo es uno con el Padre, para que los demás puedan ver su espíritu en nosotros. ¡También quiero expresar mi gratitud al Padre Churchill, al Padre Ivanildo y al Padre Ricardo por su amor y gran servicio a nuestra Parroquia y gracias a todos los que asistieron a esta hermosa celebración!

En Cristo,
Padre Abelardo

Comienza la homilía de un autor del siglo segundo (Caps. 1,1-2, 7: Funk 1,145-149)

CRISTO QUISO SALVAR A LOS QUE ESTABAN A PUNTO DE PERECER

Hermanos: Debemos mirar a Jesucristo como miramos a Dios, pensando que él es el juez de vivos y muertos; y no debemos estimar en poco nuestra salvación. Porque, si estimamos en poco a Cristo, poco será también lo que esperamos recibir. Aquellos que, al escuchar sus promesas, creen que se trata de dones mediocres pecan, y nosotros pecamos también si desconocemos de dónde fuimos llamados, quién nos llamó y a qué fin nos ha destinado y menospreciamos los sufrimientos que Cristo padeció por nosotros.

¿Con qué pagaremos al Señor o qué fruto le ofreceremos que sea digno de lo que él nos dio? ¿Cuántos son los dones y beneficios que le debemos? Él nos otorgó la luz, nos llama, como un padre, con el nombre de hijos, y, cuando estábamos en trance de perecer, nos salvó. ¿Cómo, pues, podremos alabarlo dignamente o cómo le pagaremos todos sus beneficios? Nuestro espíritu estaba tan ciego que adorábamos las piedras y los leños, el oro y la plata, el bronce y todas las obras salidas de las manos de los hombres; nuestra vida entera no era otra cosa que una muerte. Envueltos, pues, y rodeados de oscuridad, nuestra vida estaba recubierta de tinieblas, y Cristo quiso que nuestros ojos se abrieran de nuevo, y así la nube que nos rodeaba se disipó. Él se compadeció, en efecto, de nosotros y, con entrañas de misericordia, nos salvó, pues había visto nuestro extravío y nuestra perdición y cómo no podíamos esperar nada fuera de él que nos aportara la salvación. Nos llamó cuando nosotros no existíamos aún y quiso que pasáramos de la nada al ser. Alégrate, la estéril, que no dabas a luz; rompe a cantar de júbilo, la que no tenías dolores: porque la abandonada tendrá más hijos que la casada. Al decir: Alégrate, la estéril, se refería a nosotros, pues, estéril era nuestra Iglesia, antes de que le fueran dados sus hijos. Al decir: Rompe a cantar, la que no tenías dolores, se significan las plegarias que debemos elevar a Dios, sin desfallecer, como desfallecen las que están de parto. Lo que finalmente se añade: Porque la abandonada tendrá más hijos que la casada, se dijo para significar que nuestro pueblo parecía al principio estar abandonado del Señor pero ahora, por nuestra fe, somos más numerosos que aquel pueblo que se creía poseedor de Dios.

Otro pasaje de la Escritura dice también: No he venido a llamar a los justos, sino a los pecadores. Esto quiere decir que hay que salvar a los que se pierden. Porque lo grande y admirable no es el afianzar los edificios sólidos, sino los que amenazan ruina. De este modo, Cristo quiso ayudar a los que perecían y fue la salvación de muchos, pues vino a llamarnos cuando nosotros estábamos ya a punto de perecer.
